RE: Refund, receipt # 59897, refunding $165 for a repair perc test at 1130 St. Michaels Road

DATE: January 25, 2017

Please submit the paperwork for a refund of $165 to JET Septic, Inc., who paid $330 for a repair perc test ($165) and repair septic permit ($165) as part of receipt #59897 for 1130 St. Michaels Road

JET paid for the testing and permit, but during a site inspection with the Health Department, they discovered that the system failure was caused by a clogged pipe. No work was performed by the Health Department related to the septic permit, but the site inspection was performed as part of the repair perc fee. Therefore, the $165 fee for the repair septic permit may be refunded, but the $165 for the repair perc test will be retained to cover the site inspection.

To whom it may concern:

JET Septic pulled a perk/repair permit for 1130 St. Michaels Road, Mt. Airy, MD on January 5, 2017. The reason for pulling the permit was said property had sewage backing up into the house. On January 12, 2017, Mr. Kevin Wolf from Howard County Environmental Health Department met with us at said property. JET Septic dug up existing system to find a plug in septic line out of drain field area. There was not a need to perk the property for new septic fields. Mr. Kevin Wolf said that he would waive the fee for inspection since there was not a need for a new septic. He explained that I should submit a written request to explain the details and request a refund for the total amount of $330.00. I have enclosed a copy of the receipt for our check #12455. Thank you for your attention to this matter.
