To: Residential Applicants

From: Donald L. Mock, P.E., Chief of Plan Review

Date: July 12, 2022 - AMENDED 10/24/22

Subject: Plan requirements for residential accessory structures

Effective September 1, 2022, construction plans will be required for all residential accessory structures. Structures such as but not limited to:

Decks and Screened Porches of all sizes regardless of the height.

Accessory structures of 200 square feet or more: Pavilions, Gazebos, Pergolas, Sheds, etc.

If you are unable to draw the construction plans accurately, basic deck plan dimensions and specifications details (sample provided) will be required with each permit application. You must provide either construction plans or the completed basic deck plan dimensions and specifications at the time of application or online submittal. If submitting online, please upload plans labeled as "construction drawings".

A plot plan of the property, showing the dimensions to property lines, has always been required, and will remain so.

 Example #1 – Deck's only
Example #2 – Porches with Shed Style Roof
Example #3 – Porches with Gable Style Roof
